POLITICAL RABIES.

There are times when a political gang get the rabies like a dog and go about frothing at the mouth, the foam flying from their lips, their eyes glassy, their bark hoarse and their step unsteady. Such is the condition of the county ring today, as exemplified by the frothings of Deane and Summerfield.

One is prancing about the street with a six shooter, filling the air with vapors and boasting and the other vomiting filth from the Opera House stage upon the editor of the APPEAL.

When a man whose record and character has been exposed fully to public gaze, is unable to disprove the charges against him, he invariably loses his temper and if he gets a chance to air himself on a public stage, makes a sorry spectacle of himself and his case.

The APPEAL has always claimed that Mr. Summerfield was unfit for the office of District Attorney, because his narrow mind was only guided by his personal malice. His silurian instincts warp his judgment, de-throne his reason and he is no more responsible for his acts or utterances than a drunken man in a rage.

His speech at the Opera House fully proved this assertion. The manner in which the county ring have trained their squirt guns of dirty water upon the APPEAL Editor continues to demonstrate the fact to the intelligent public that the county ticket placed in the field by the Silver party of Ormsby is composed of candidates whose fitness and character cannot be questioned. If they could find a flaw in the Silver county ticket it is clear to the most casual observer, that they would not be blackguarding the APPEAL.

This journal, which some time ago, the county ring said would leave town in six months, has made as thorough an expose of the rottenness of our county government as its knowledge of the facts permitted.

The most complete acknowledgment of the truth of our statements was publicly made at the Opera House on Saturday evening, when Mr. Summerfield, the frothing mouth piece of the ring was inadvertently unchained to spew his bile upon the audience.

In a few minutes he lost his head, and what who intended to be a scathing speech became the ravings of a crank, and the men on the ticket who expected to be benefited by his diatribe stood aghast as the time went by and they checked off the votes of the better element that were falling away with every sentence uttered.

The ring and the candidates cannot evade the public responsibility of sending him to the front as their mouthpiece.

It was a public meeting advertised by the Central Committee and celebrated with music and bonfires, and the mouthpiece selected by the Republicans to present their claims to the public was a chicken thief.

Mr. Summerfield stated in the Opera House on Saturday evening that "no respectable family in Carson take the APPEAL."

The families of nearly all the vice presidents of the meeting he was adressing are regular subscribers of the paper, and they are regarded by the community as respectable people.

That it at times seems "a second edition of the Police Gazette" may be true.

Our duty as a journalist has at times compelled us to record the doings of Summerfield and his friends, and on these occasions the APPEAL's resemblance to the Police Gazette had many features to bear out the comparison.

PUBLIC MEETING.

There will be public speaking at the Opera House on Monday evening. Hon H Bergstein and Hon T V Julian of Reno will address the meeting and be followed by local speakers.

C E Mack, of Virginia City and C J Kappler, of Washington, D. C., will also address the meeting. There will be music both vocal and instrumental. Miss Noble will be there with her silver cornet.

PUBLIC SPEAKING!
